

Please do not do anything that would water down the current Indiana restrictions for telephone solicitors. We pay for our phone and do not want telemarketing firms to use our phone for advertising. It is annoying. Actually it does them a favor not to be able to call us, as we never participate in whatever they are selling.

Thank you for taking our comments. John and Cyndy Cradick